

The Dedman College Interdisciplinary Institute (DCII) is pleased to announce a call for proposals for support from the Scott-Hawkins Lecture Fund for AY 2025–26.

The DCII is particularly interested in proposals for speakers or events that can appeal to a broad interdisciplinary audience of students and faculty. As in the past, we expect that applicants will seek other sources of funding to match the amount requested from the Scott-Hawkins Fund.

The deadline for proposals for Fall 2025 lectures is . We will also accept proposals for Spring 2026, although if funds remain after this round we will issue a separate call for Spring 2026 lectures, with an October deadline.

Applicants should submit proposals via the following link:

<https://www.smu.edu/dedman/research/institutes-and-centers/dcii/events/scott-hawkins/application>

its assets to SMU and asked that the annual income be used for the Scott -Hawkins Lectures. Gaynell Hawkins was a 1917 graduate of SMU. Upon graduation, she began working for the Civic Federation, first as research secretary and later educational director. She moved on to other projects in 1940 and upon her retirement in 1965 she received the SMU Woman of Achievement Award.