

Office of the Provost

August 21, 2020

Dear Faculty and Staff:

These weekly updates will serve as a tool to keep you informed and engaged with reopening in fall 2020. If you have suggestions for what we should include in future communications, please send your ideas to this email address. Previous newsletters are available here

tegories: 1) Virtual

o

through both modes have spent countless hours this spring and summer retooling content and learning about new tools and

Classroom technology update OIT has been refreshing the classroom project page

Onsite support/help during the Fall 2020 semester I hope you were able to review the OIT Technology News: Back to School 2020 Edition e-mail sent to all faculty and staff on August 19. It provides updates on a broad range of topics of interest as you make final preparations for Fall 2020. In particular, see this blog on where to go for 24/7 technology help and support. methodology initiated by calling 214-768-HELP (4357) will be use of multi-ply masks instead of other types of face coverings. Faculty can require students in the classroom to wear face masks versus other

Division of Student Affairs published their 2020-2021 event guidelines this week, which will govern student groups recognized by, or affiliated with, SMU (either formally or informally).

Messaging to Students

- In 1 email to students, Associate Provost Sheri Kunovich focused on Red/Blue assignments by providing students greater understanding of where to look in my.SMU to determine their status (Red, Blue, Remote) and an overview of the fall 2020 Red/Blue rotation schedule.
- sent a message to faculty and staff announcing a series of virtual opportunities to discuss the ways in which she and her office partner with you to support our students. The message also contained attachments with information about new and legacy support programs for our students.
- newsletter s contact tracing protocol for students.
- Today, President Turner and Vice President Mmeje sent a crucial message to students stressing the importance of personal responsibility in order to complete and enjoy the fall semester on campus.

Mythbuster

SMU is hiding information on COVID-19 employee hospitalizations

News and Noteworthy